

To Harvard and Radcliffe Class of 1960

We write to invite you to join HR '59, '60, and '61 classmates for dinner at the Cambridge Boat Club after the festivities in the Yard on Commencement Day, Thursday, May 25, 2017.

A response to the Tree Spread invitation you received from the Harvard Alumni Association will allow you to get a pass to the Morning Exercises in the Yard. This is the best show in town that day, with the Sheriff of Middlesex County's sonorous exhortation, the honorary and earned degrees and the Harvard Band. Following the Tree Spread - it turns out there IS a free lunch if you live long enough- the Harvard Alumni Association Annual Meeting will include the address by the principal honorand, Mark Zuckerberg.

After the HAA meeting we will get ourselves over to the bucolic riverside venue at the Cambridge Boat Club on the Charles at 5 p.m. for a reception and dinner with a menu evocative of our era at Harvard and Radcliffe.

The cost of the dinner, including hors d'oeuvres and wine or beer is just $75 per person. Please let us know of your plans to attend by Thursday, May 11. You may register and pay online here or by sending your payment by check to:
